John,

I just got back from Turkey, and am amazed at the increased toll that come with increased age. But am in the office today.

While I was over there we got together and went through the settlement agreement draft. We aim to get a responsive redline by Monday or Tuesday. I just want to update as to a shift represented by our thinking about the timing of the releases, a proposed agreement to stay pending bankruptcy court approval, and how we are searching for a slightly different approach to money. Let me know if you want/have time to visit.
